

We're in the business of knowing those our competitors don't.

I like to be surprised.
When I'm looking for new talent, the challenge is finding a fresh perspective.
Carrera Partners get that.
They bring me people who see things differently.

CONNECTIONS IN SALES & MARKETING

At Carrera Partners, we've been placing sales and marketing experts with great Australian companies for over 10 years. And we do it a little bit differently to most. We listen. We care. We understand. Which means candidates trust us and choose us. This gives us, and our clients, a distinct advantage – access to the best talent. So, whether it's full time or contract, we connect the best people with the best opportunities to create something bigger and better for both.
